

Please reject the NAB petition 04-160. I pay for satellite radio and do not think the NAB should tell me what I can listen to. While travelling satellite radio provides a superior connection to obtain news and weather. This is really important when your making decisions as to route selection . Around town the satellite radio has to compete with local stations if it chas a superior product it will succeed and force others to match it's quality.